

Connectivity Challenge: Chicago

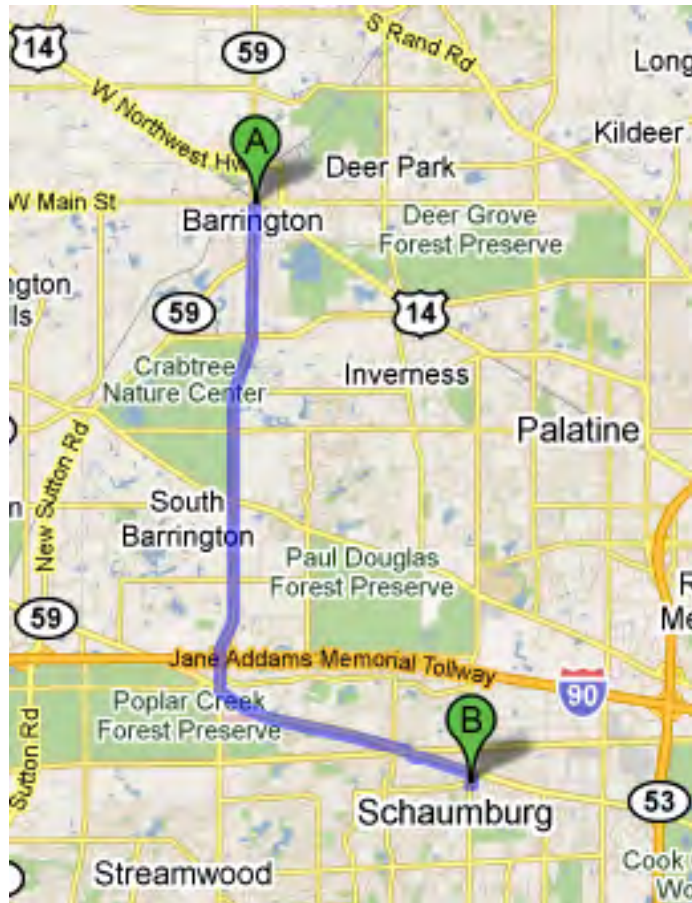

Regional Transit

Joe Costello Regional Transportation Authority

Personal Car

10 miles, 22 minutes

Transit

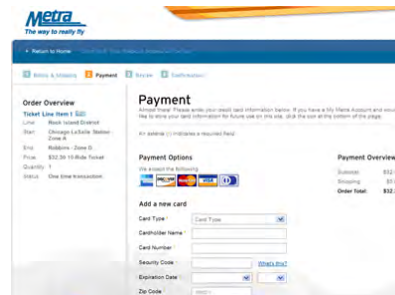

57.7 miles, 2 hours, 14 minutes

Not always more convenient or faster

We must adequately invest in our transit system to retain and attract riders to choose transit first for their travel needs.

Despite challenges, we've made improvements

*‘When I came to this job,
I thought about it...in the context of a city like Washington, D.C. or Chicago, where you can live without a car.’*

-USDOT Sec. Ray LaHood

Thank you.
